

IPS tips

(1) Check out answers to Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ) on the IPS website at: www.daughtersips.org/for-daughters-only/

(2) Large budgets – like construction budgets - require multiple funders + can take a year or more to fund.

(3) You can contact IPS in advance for funding input about a project you are preparing to submit.

opportunities

Direct Relief International www.directrelief.org/international

Direct Relief works to improve the health of people living in high-need areas by strengthening fragile health systems + increasing access to quality health care.

contact: online - https://directrelief.az1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_b8vgvfuujiKCjBE9

Equals in Tech Awards 2017 www.equals.org September deadline

Annual nomination to recognize initiatives supporting women + girls in technology.

Contact: Equals-in-tech-awards@itu.int

training + education

Mission Project Service

<https://missionprojectservice.org/>

MPS builds capacity of missionaries with tools to seek + successfully secure project funding.

Become a Member: online application

Systemic Change Manual

<http://cdn1.famvin.org/en/files/2017/07/Manual-Systemic-Change-.pdf>

Created by the Vincentian Family + available to download for free.

resources

OpenIdeo

Ideas to reduce stigma + increase opportunities for people with disabilities.

website: https://challenges.openideo.com/challenge/disability-inclusion/winning-ideas?utm_medium=email&utm_source=mailchimp&utm_campaign=disability+winning

Solar Sisters

Empowering women through clean energy entrepreneurship.

website: www.solarsister.org

Nutrition Resources

www.edesianutrition.org/the-foods/ + <http://gcnf.org/network/>

If you are working with a population suffering from malnutrition, IPS is development contacts.

More information to come

Daughters of Charity in solidarity around the world

if you are interested:

Feel free to contact these resources directly. However, if you need help with funding, you may submit an IPS Application to marylouise.stubbs@doc.org.

